Leadtrend Technology Corporation

2025 Business Report

Dear Shareholders,

In 2025, the ACDC power management integrated circuit (IC) industry was significantly impacted by the US–China trade war, tariff uncertainties, and geopolitical tensions. Taiwanese manufacturers benefited from order diversions driven by the “China+1” trend. However, to counter these challenges, Chinese manufacturers initiated a series of price wars in the mature process technology sector, significantly affecting the areas in which we operate. Although Leadtrend adopted a strategy focused on enhancing product value and differentiation—deepening its involvement in mid-to-high-end applications through one-stop services and collaborating closely with clients on development to build trust—revenue declined by 7.24% in 2025 compared to the previous year. This decrease was due to intensified competition in the end market and headwinds such as the appreciation of the New Taiwan Dollar in the second quarter. Looking ahead, the Company plans to continue launching products that meet market demand for low-power, high-performance, and high-power-density solutions while optimizing its cost structure and expanding the mix of high-margin products to navigate the volatile macroeconomic environment.

2025 Business Performance Outcomes

(1) Results of the Implementation of the Operational Plan

The semiconductor market is rebounding, driven by the development of AI applications. Alongside ongoing energy efficiency regulations across various sectors and the rapid evolution of industry standards, the power management IC market in which Leadtrend operates presents a structural opportunity characterized by specification upgrades that enhance solution value. First, the EU’s external power supply energy efficiency regulations have come into effect. These are expected to drive customer demand for highly integrated, low-standby-power and high-efficiency products. This shifts the strategic focus of power management ICs away from cost-based competition toward providing more comprehensive system solutions and design support. Second, the USB-C fast charging market is shifting from increasing power to optimizing efficiency and thermal management, thereby raising the technical barriers for integrated technologies such as conversion efficiency, protection mechanisms, and system integration.

In response to these trends, Leadtrend continued to pursue a development strategy focused on total solutions and highly integrated products in 2025. By enhancing the comprehensiveness of our medium- to high-power AC-DC control solutions and advancing our integrated design and application reference solutions, we aim to help our customers shorten their development timelines and improve their products' competitiveness. This approach will increase the value of our product portfolio, expand our market penetration, and strengthen our long-term partnerships across the laptop, TV, monitor, networking, smart home appliances, e-bike, industrial PC (IPC), lighting, and other power supply application markets.

(2) An Analysis of Financial Revenue, Expenditure, and Profitability

Leadtrend's consolidated financial performance for the fiscal year 2025 is summarized as follows: annual revenue reached NT$1,349 million, representing a 7.24% decrease compared to the previous year. Gross profit amounted to NT$458 million, accounting for 34.0% of revenue, which is a 17.02% decline from the previous year. Operating income was reported at NT$16 million, or 1.22% of revenue, a decrease of 80.68% from the previous year. Net income was recorded at NT$31 million, resulting in earnings per share (EPS) of NT$0.50 and a return on shareholders' equity of 1.74%.

(3) Status of Research and Development

Leadtrend's R&D strategy shows a high level of continuity. It focuses on the mass production of medium- and high-power digital control ICs in 2025, with the goal of progressing toward the development of ultra-energy-efficient, high-end drive topology control and forward-looking, emerging applications in 2026.

2025 R&D Achievements

1. Medium-to high-power Digital Combo ICs

Successfully mass-produced PFC+LLC digital control combo ICs. Utilizing proprietary noise-free technology and high efficiency, these ICs effectively streamline system components and have been widely adopted in large-screen TVs and networking products.

2. High-Performance PFC Controller ICs

We have launched digital interleaved PFC controllers and low total harmonic distortion (THD) critical conduction mode boost PFC controllers. Thanks to our advanced power factor correction technology, these products have been mass-produced and adopted by several leading power supply manufacturers, demonstrating our technical expertise in medium- to high -power supply architectures.

3. Emerging Field of Low-Earth Orbit (LEO) Satellites

The Company has completed the verification of key technologies and successfully integrated them into satellite power systems, meeting the stringent requirements for high reliability and lightweight design in LEO satellite equipment. This achievement has enabled the Company to successfully expand into new application markets.

2026 R&D Outlook

1. High-End Drive and Topology Control Strategy

Accelerate the commercialization of high-power-density SiC MOSFET solutions. For medium-to high-power applications, complete the planning and development of a series of high-frequency drive and control ICs that support mainstream topologies such as LLC, AHB, and PFC.

2. Promotion of Zero Standby Power (ZSP) Technology

Building on the success of NB Total Solutions, we will expand the application of IEC 62301 ZSP technology across additional product lines, enabling our customers to meet stringent global energy efficiency regulations.

3. R&D of Next-Generation Medium- to High-Power Digital LLC and CCM PFC Control ICs

Focusing on the server and industrial power supply markets, we are investing in the research and development of next-generation standalone digital LLC control ICs to achieve a faster dynamic response and enhanced system stability, thereby establishing significant technical barriers to entry.

As of the end of 2025, Leadtrend had filed a total of 760 patent applications worldwide, with 578 patents granted—including 221 in Taiwan, 169 in mainland China, 186 in the United States, and two in Japan. In addition to continuously strengthening its intellectual property barriers, the team frequently publishes research findings in leading international power electronics journals, such as the IEEE JESTPE. This approach enhances Leadtrend's global brand visibility and professional standing through industry-academia collaboration.

Leadtrend's research and development efforts across all product lines have consistently pursued the vision of “Green your power and Green the World” by advancing product technology. The Company actively integrates digital and analog mixed-signal technologies alongside hardware and software development in its research initiatives. Product development is achieved through collaboration with brands and manufacturers within the power design sector, while ongoing project research on emerging technologies is conducted in partnership with relevant industry stakeholders, government entities, and academic institutions. This collaborative approach facilitates annual enhancements in power system conversion efficiency, underscoring that green innovation has consistently served as a fundamental guiding principle for Leadtrend.

Summary of the 2026 Business Plan

(1) Business Plan

Leadtrend adheres to core principles of innovation, service, quality, and collaboration, providing customers with prompt and comprehensive support. The Company's long-term development strategy emphasizes a strong focus on Taiwan, a deep engagement with the Chinese market, and an aspiration to connect with international brands worldwide.

(2) Expected Sales Volume and Its Underpinnings

In 2025, the global semiconductor market maintained strong growth, driven by demand for AI, cloud data centers, and high-performance computing. This reflects a rebound in demand for end-user electronic systems overall, as well as the continued adoption of new applications. In the power management IC market, where Leadtrend operates, growth is driven not only by expansion in the overall semiconductor market but also by evolving specifications, regulations, and system upgrades. This market exhibits growth characteristics driven by structural upgrades. As this trend evolves, market competition is shifting its focus from simple power increases to requirements such as efficiency, thermal management, integration, and interoperability. This shift will benefit Leadtrend by expanding its serviceable addressable market (SAM) and enhancing its product portfolio value. The outlook for future operational growth is optimistic, and the sales in 2026 are projected to increase significantly compared to the previous year.

(3) Important Policies Regarding Production and Sales

Leadtrend is recognized as Taiwan's most comprehensive medium- to high-power ACDC total solution integrated circuit design company. Leveraging Taiwan's unique semiconductor division of labor capabilities, the Company offers flexible customization options. It maintains strong relationships with, and close manufacturing partnerships with local foundries, as well as packaging and testing facilities, to ensure production capacity and meet customer delivery schedules. However, geopolitical factors, logistics challenges, and fluctuations in energy and material costs may still impact the supply side. Additionally, as may the concentration of resources in certain manufacturing processes and packaging formats. In the event of a rapid reversal in demand, there may still be temporary fluctuations in delivery times and prices. Therefore, Leadtrend will continue to adopt a cautiously optimistic approach to market assessments and production capacity planning, making timely adjustments based on customer adoption progress, supply chain conditions, and market changes.

The future development strategy of the Company, along with the influence of the external competitive environment, regulatory framework, and overall business landscape, will be examined.

Leadtrend is firmly committed to developing innovative product technologies, maintaining sound corporate governance, fulfilling its corporate social responsibilities, and pursuing sustainable development. Through continuous innovation, we strive to deliver high-performance power management IC products that help our customers comply with the latest international regulations, reduce their energy consumption, and protect the planet. Despite facing rapid changes in the business environment and intense competition, Leadtrend continues to develop new technologies and product roadmaps that align with future market trends. We seek growth opportunities by creating diverse and specialized products, continuously innovating and enhancing our technical capabilities, and working toward increased profitability to create greater value for our customers and shareholders.

The Board of Directors remains committed to maintaining the trust and long-term support of our shareholders. The Board will oversee the management team and collaborate diligently with all employees to actively pursue the Company's growth and development, thereby expressing our gratitude to shareholders for their confidence and encouragement. We would like to extend our sincere wishes for your good health and overall well-being. Thank you.

Recognition of Sales Revenue

For the significant sales revenue amounts of Leadtrend Technology Corporation and its subsidiaries, please refer to Note 21. Proceeds from sale of power management integrated circuits are the main revenue of Leadtrend Technology Corporation and its subsidiaries. To initiate the process of recognizing such revenue, the production management personnel provide the delivery order to get the products ready for the customer as instructed by the business segment. After the products to be shipped are ready, quality assurance personnel are informed and requested to inspect the products. After products are inspected and qualified, production management personnel sign and affix the official seal to the delivery order and the finished goods outbound order, have the products shipped after the approval of the authorized supervisor, and update the stock details in the operating system. Then the accountant recognizes the sales revenue based on the delivery order signed by the customer or the shipping company.

We assessed that, for customers with significant fluctuations in revenue during 2025, there is a risk relating to the occurrence of revenue recognition. Accordingly, we performed the following audit procedures with respect to sales transactions with such customers to assess the occurrence of revenue recognized by Leadtrend Technology Corporation and its subsidiaries:

1. We obtained an understanding of, and tested, the effectiveness of internal controls over order approval and shipment procedures.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error. If misstatements could, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken based on the consolidated financial statements, then the misstatements are considered material.

As part of an audit in accordance with the auditing standards of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for the one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal controls.
2. Obtain an understanding of the internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal controls of Leadtrend Technology Corporation and its subsidiaries.

If we believe that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the relevant disclosures in the consolidated financial statements, or to modify our opinion if such disclosures are inadequate. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause Leadtrend Technology Corporation and its subsidiaries to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements (including the notes thereof) and whether the consolidated financial statements appropriately represent the underlying transactions and events.
6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities within Leadtrend Technology Corporation and its subsidiaries to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit conducted for Leadtrend Technology Corporation and its subsidiaries, and also responsible for our audit opinion.

We have described these matters in our auditors' report unless any law or regulation prohibits the matters from being disclosed or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we decide that the matters should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interests to be facilitated.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Ya-Yun Chang and Ming-Huei Chen.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and the Auditing Standards in the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent Company Only Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of Leadtrend Technology Corporation in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the parent company only financial statements of Leadtrend Technology Corporation for the year ended December 31, 2025. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the parent company only financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters for the parent company only financial statements of Leadtrend Technology Corporation for the year ended December 31, 2025 are stated as follows:

Recognition of Sales Revenue

For the disclosure of significant sales revenue of Leadtrend Technology Corporation, please refer to Note 20. Sales of power management integrated circuits are the primary revenue source of the Company. The revenue recognition process involves production planning personnel preparing goods based on delivery orders provided by the business unit. Once the products are ready, quality assurance personnel are notified to perform inspections. Upon successful inspection, the production planning personnel sign the delivery orders and finished goods outbound orders, which are then approved by authorized supervisors before shipment, and the inventory details are updated in the operating system. Accounting personnel then recognize sales revenue based on the delivery orders signed by customers or shipping companies.

We assessed that for customers with significant fluctuations in revenue during 2025, there is a risk relating to the occurrence of revenue recognition. Accordingly, we performed the following audit procedures on sales to such customers to verify the occurrence of revenue recognized by the Company:

1. Obtained an understanding of and tested the effectiveness of internal controls over order approval and shipment procedures.
2. Sampled and inspected supporting documents related to sales revenue and traced them to cash receipts or subsequent collections to verify the existence and occurrence of sales, and examined whether any unusual circumstances existed between the sales counterparties and the recipients of payments.

Responsibilities of Management and those Charged with Governance for the Parent Company Only Financial Statements

Management is responsible for preparation and fair presentation of the parent company only financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and also responsible for maintenance of the internal controls associated with the preparation of the parent company only financial statements, to ensure the parent company only financial statements free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company only financial statements, management is also responsible for assessing the ability of Leadtrend Technology Corporation to continue, as a going concern, disclosing any and all relevant matters and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate Leadtrend Technology Corporation or cease operations, or has no feasible alternative but to do so. Those charged with governance (including the audit committee) are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of Leadtrend Technology Corporation.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent Company Only Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent company only financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error. If misstatements could, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken based on the parent company only financial statements, then the misstatements are considered material.

As part of an audit in accordance with the auditing standards of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent company only financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for the one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal controls.

2. Obtain an understanding of the internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal controls of Leadtrend Technology Corporation.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made, by management.
4. Conclude, based on the audit evidence obtained, on the appropriateness of the management's use of the going concern basis of accounting, and whether a material uncertainty exists that is associated with any events or conditions casting significant doubt on the ability of Leadtrend Technology Corporation to continue as a going concern. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause Leadtrend Technology Corporation to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent company only financial statements (including the notes thereof) and whether the parent company only financial statements appropriately represent the underlying transactions and events.
